Report on the Portland Police Bureau, the law enforcement organization for the city of Portland, Oregon

By Karl M. Wright

March 28th 2026

The Portland Police Bureau, also known as PPB, is the primary city level law enforcement agency for the city of Portland in Oregon, USA. Founded in 1870, the current chief of the PPB is Bob Day, who has served in this capacity since October 11th 2023. Most of the PPB rank-and-file employees are represented by the Portland Police Association union. The PPA union has had its share of controversies. As with most unions, it fights to protect the wages and benefits of its employees. However, since a police union represents employees who are in the public eye and are subject to the scrutiny of public trust, the PPA has a special obligation to uphold community confidence and honor – an obligation that is well beyond most unions. On this front, the PPA has been much more aggressive in its tactics than a public trust organization should. The cases in point have been spread across many news headlines in the Portland area, and it has led to calls for more oversight. It should be noted that Chief Bob Day is a graduate from George Fox University, which is a Christian-centric university. It can be assumed from this that Chief Day holds a Christian worldview, however categorized it may be.

But the main subject of this report is the first hand observations and documentation that the writer of this report has made. This is the sixth version of this report. Additional observations and logs have been recorded that necessitate this sixth version. It is blatantly clear that the spirit of American Exceptionalism is preventing the PPB from understanding the predicament they are in with these reports. American belief in their own superiority is an unquenchable fire of stupidity, evidently.

Because of the lack of respect for international law and jurisdictional boundaries, Operation Yellow Sentinel was launched, a cyberwarfare initiative designed to sabotage American law enforcement activity. Operation Yellow Sentinel was launched on March 5th 2026, and will continue until such time as the goals that necessitated its launch are accomplished. Already, Operation Yellow Sentinel has accomplished one of its main goals, which is to poison the well of the Oregon court system. Portland community members have become collateral damage by Operation Sentinel, and they are demanding justice from the PPB. But there will be no justice for them, because the electronic devices that generated Operation Yellow Sentinel are registered espionage devices with a foreign government, and cannot be used in American courts as legal evidence. And the more the PPB pushes the issue that's fundamentally unavailable to them, the closer the PPB gets to insolvency as a law enforcement organization. It is believed that already the PPB has created affidavits and legal court documents as a reaction to Operation Yellow Sentinel and the community outcry it has caused. Again, these documents were specifically designed to be poison pills, something that can't be used as evidence but will cause the PPB to attempt to force an issue that they can't succeed in.

My personal philosophy regarding law enforcement is police abolition. It is so noted for the record, and I admit that puts a certain bias on my signals intelligence work. But my philosophy is based on scientific and historical research. Humans in the prehistoric ages lived for hundreds of thousands of years without a need for a security guard caste, and they evolved into the modern humans we have today. Even the ancient Egyptian, Greek and Roman societies didn't have law enforcement per se. They had standing armies that performed some rudimentary level of policing in the abstract sense, but they were military not LE. If you distill the drift in civilization for the last five thousand years, the need for specific law enforcement agencies arose from the need to protect landowners from the mobs of peasants that tended to get unruly. Under modern capitalism, law enforcement exists to keep the masses of citizens from taking the property of the bourgeois by force. However, and especially in America, the ingrained dependence on the capitalistic mode of economy by the United States citizens at large keeps them living in fear. They fear that without police, they would be robbed and murdered. This is of course illogical, and police unions do a good job exploiting that fear and manipulating it for their own purposes. The end result is that most Americans have a hard time wrapping their mind around the concept of police abolition.

In some respects I am more of an activist than an analyst, and in my unique circumstances I blur those lines very drastically. I've been a data analyst and computer programmer for over forty years, and my abilities in intelligence parsing spans decades. My dedication to social activism is much more recent, but I've paired the two quite successfully. I put in the hard work of forcing issues that I believe in, at risk of life and limb. As has been alluded to in other dossiers, I have hacked into and shut down the entire computer networks of a foreign police organization. The resulting diplomatic embarrassment caused the US State Department to cover the event up. The State Department didn't tell the FBI however, and they sent a swarm of FBI agents to that foreign country a couple months later, to force a prosecution that was already legally thrown out and covered up. In the process, I conspired with that foreign government to entrap the FBI acting on their worst impulses, and thoroughly document corruption and misbehavior by American federal agencies. This foreign government still has all the evidence of that entrapment operation. This enraged American leaders even further, and the end result was that I was given diplomatic cover and diplomatic immunity to protect me from the wrath of American leadership. I flew back to America from that country on August 29th 2022 aboard the President of that country's jet, with a full diplomatic escort. It seems to be hard for people in America to wrap their minds around these facts, but I have full diplomatic protection from a foreign government, and nothing that anybody does in America can change that fact. Nothing.

Personal interactions with the PPB over the last two years would be categorized as professional and courteous. In many cases however, the involvement of the PPB in the situation is a matter of open question. The interaction with the PPB during a personal protest was legitimately necessary, to verify the safety of the protest and the concerns of the community. However, many other proximity interactions have been something of a curiosity. The situations almost appear as a matter of documenting location and travel. If this is indeed the case, it is very ill advised, since nothing that a city law enforcement department gathers would be usable to them. Due to my status as a foreign agent with diplomatic immunity granted by an external government, nothing they procure would ever see the light of day in court.

Furthermore, and maybe more damning, these interactions are recorded by myself on electronic devices that are registered with a foreign state as legitimate espionage devices. Any documentation gathered on these devices is signals intelligence data, and unavailable in any way, shape or form as law enforcement evidence. Anytime and every time a PPB employee allows themselves to be documented with one or more of these signals intelligence devices, they run a very significant risk of anything they were trying to document as law enforcement evidence being inadmissible in any court due to national security considerations. This pertains to anything happening around me, even if it doesn't nominally have anything to do with me otherwise.

It is very, very questionable why the FBI and Homeland Security have not informed the Portland Police Bureau about this constant risk of evidence tainting. The United States federal law enforcement entities should have enough information by now to know fully well what is going on with my signals intelligence gathering, even if they don't have the top level security clearance needed to directly verify my status as a foreign agent. At the present and as of this writing, the Portland Police Bureau and Homeland Security seem to have a rather acrimonious relationship, and maybe this contributes to the lack of communication on the part of the federal agencies in conjunction with state, county and city law enforcement agencies. In 2026 there have been many instances in both Portland and across the United States of America where federal law enforcement was actively hostile towards local police agencies and communities. However, this lack of communication puts the entire American public at risk, because legitimate law enforcement and public safety work is being jeopardized by political football and jurisdictional shell games.

The United States is experiencing tremendous political and social upheaval right now, and perhaps these gaping holes in law enforcement work are just par for the course. If so, these issues are symptoms that the United States is well on its way to Failed State status, and after that, law enforcement becomes the judge, jury and executioner. And that is certainly a shameful end to a once-great nation.

As for the Portland Police Bureau, my current strategy and goal is not the abolition of the PPB. That is a matter for democratic processes, and only the voters and people themselves should decide such things. In a democracy, you can't force an issue that the voters themselves don't want. However, I work to collect signals intelligence on Oregon and the United States for the benefit of the international diplomatic community and especially European Union member states. If the PPB interferes with that work, they might find their organization delegitimatized, and unable to bring evidence into a court because it got tainted by international espionage. If that event comes to pass, and the Portland Police Bureau becomes unable to function in courtrooms as a law enforcement entity, the only ones to blame would be the officers in the PPB that didn't respect the rules of international law, and inserted themselves into a situation where they have no jurisdiction. International espionage is way above the pay grade of any employees in the city of Portland, be they in the PPB or mayor's office. That should be obvious, but apparently it is not.

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Portland City Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty is suing the Portland police union, its former president and a Portland police officer for $5 million, saying they leaked information last spring that erroneously identified Hardesty as the suspect in a hit-and-run.

According to court documents obtained by KOIN 6 News, the lawsuit seeks $3 million from the Portland Police Association and $1 million each from the union's former president, Brian Hunzeker, and Police Bureau officer Kerri Ottoman. The defendants did not immediately respond to requests for comment from the newspaper.

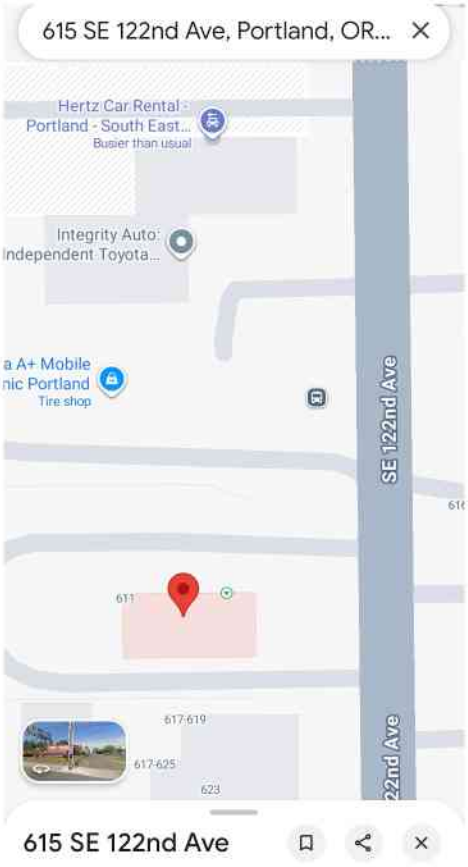
Don Pedro Restaurant
615 SE 122nd Ave Portland



The Don Pedro Mexican restaurant at 615 SE 122nd Ave in Portland has been observed to be a frequent stop for officers with the Portland Police Bureau. One can presume that this is because Don Pedro gives free meals to cops, but whatever the reason, it seems to be a hub of PPB meal activity.

Thanks for your txt. I am sympathetic to your situation, but the circumstances your firm finds itself in are the direct result of decisions by some of your employees. I never really had a lawyer/client relationship with your firm, at least not from my point of view. And I told Stephanie Engelsman this. I have have been granted diplomatic immunity from a foreign government, and the continuing choice of ppl to ignore this reality is your problem, not mine. I recommend that you hire an outside attorney as legal counsel, and let that individual be the point of contact in any and all future communication with me. I would especially encourage you to hire a big shot attorney with a proven track record of handling federal government malfeasance, but that's up to you. See my email for more details.

Sgt. Aaron Schmautz is a second-generation Police Officer and a 21-year veteran of the Police Bureau in Portland, Oregon. He began his career in 2005 as a patrol Officer, gaining frontline experience in community policing before being promoted to Sergeant in 2015. In 2009, he was elected to the Portland Police Association (PPA) Executive Board, where he served continuously as Vice President for over a decade—making him one of the longest-serving Board members. First elected as PPA President in 2021, he won re-election in 2023 and is currently serving his second term.

A dedicated advocate for police labor rights, Sgt. Schmautz has served on five collective bargaining teams and, as PPA President, he leads negotiations for the police and 911 dispatcher contracts. His leadership extends statewide as President of the Oregon Coalition of Police & Sheriffs (ORCOPS), where he represents law enforcement interests in legislative and policy matters. On the national level, he is an active Board Member of the National Association of Police Organizations (NAPO).

Throughout his career, Sgt. Schmautz has served in diverse assignments, including as a District Officer, Patrol Supervisor, and with the Old Town Entertainment Detail. He has also led specialized units such as the Honor Guard and Youth Services Division, providing him with experience navigating both City and Bureau priorities. He loves the City of Portland and believes that public safety is the cornerstone of rebuilding a stronger, safer community. He emphasizes the need to create a holistic, interconnected public safety system—one that is fully funded, fully staffed, and built on strong partnerships between first responders and the communities they serve.

Outside of his professional responsibilities, Sgt. Schmautz is deeply committed to his family and to community service. He has spearheaded fundraising efforts for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and Randall Children's Hospital NICU and partners with local charitable organizations including Miles from Molly. He is an active member of the Oregon Fallen Badge Foundation, supporting the families of fallen officers.

> "Supporting and investing in the Police Bureau is key to improving public safety, which is the foundation for a stronger and safer community. I am humbled by the opportunity to lead this organization and look forward to working with community partners, leaders, and our members as we address the challenges ahead," said Aaron Schmautz, PPA President. "The PPA leadership will continue to advocate for a fully funded and staffed Police Bureau as we head into a new era in policing and continue to evolve and grow along with the needs of the diverse communities we protect and serve."

The Portland Police Bureau is releasing a new video highlighting the work of its Air Support Unit (ASU) following the purchase of more modern airplane this past year. The video can be found here: https://youtu.be/_mhsfa57cyY

ASU provides aerial support and expertise for the Police Bureau's patrol, investigative and administrative needs. In 2023, the Unit flew 1,146 hours (including simulator use). Of those hours, 754.2 hours were patrol support flights. The Unit also received 379 flight requests for 32 different units/agencies and continued to be on-scene of emergency calls for service in under two minutes (1.8). Last year, ASU responded to 1,977 calls for service and conducted 10 flight missions to assist East Precinct personnel with stolen vehicle missions.

As part of its contribution to curbing gun violence, the Air Support Unit successfully assisted in the recovery of 113 firearms during focused missions and while conducting patrol support flights.

In early 2021, the Air Support Unit began tracking incidents where ASU was involved in vehicle eludes and subsequent uses of force. In 2023, when ASU was used after a vehicle eluded a police stop and that pursuit was terminated by ground officers. Data showed there continued to be a comparatively lower rate of force used than when officers continued a pursuit in lieu of ASU support. This is a testament to the benefit of ASU and an advantage of disengagement.

The Air Support Unit currently has two planes, a 2015 Cessna 182t, which was purchased in 2023, replacing the former Air1, which was from 1978 as well as a 2003 Cessna 182t. ASU also has a Redbird flight simulator that provides training to pilots and Tactical Flight Officers.

ASU has two primary designated groups, Tactical Flight Officers (TFOs) and pilots. The Unit has one full-time PPB Sergeant who serves as Chief Pilot and ten additional members who serve in detached positions.
